

Meserve collection O-48

LINCOLN IS CLOSER to the center of the flag, standing bare-headed above the third star from the left. Photograph by F. DeB. Richards, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, February 22, 1861, shortly after sunrise. Tad leans on the rail with chin in hand, gazing at the spectators.